Giving 2007

Vancouver Foundation's annual list of contributors and endowment funds.

Giving 2007

Every year, thousands of people choose to make a positive difference.

They choose to donate their time and/or their hard-earned money to making their communities a better place for all citizens: young and old, rich and poor, urban and rural; people and animals.

Vancouver Foundation is fortunate to meet these kinds of people every day.

In 2007, Vancouver Foundation had the pleasure of working with the 1,000 individuals and organizations listed in this booklet. Some of them set up endowment funds; some donated money to a current endowment fund held by an individual or an organization; and some gave money to the Foundation simply to show they cared.

Others gave us their time and their wisdom to help us make good decisions about where to spend these generous gifts.

But no matter what capacity they gave in, our donors have one thing in common: they are helping to build legacies for their community.

Endowment Funds

Vancouver Foundation helps any donor, whether an individual, corporation or organization, create a philanthropic legacy by establishing an endowment fund. Donors have a choice regarding the type of fund they wish to establish according to the degree of involvement they wish to have. The capital of these funds is prudently invested by Vancouver Foundation and only the income is granted to registered charities, thereby ensuring continued support for the community year after year.

Community Impact Funds

Community Impact Funds address the current needs of the community, as well as future ones. Our volunteer advisory committees are experts in their field and experienced at reviewing and assessing grant applications in animal welfare; arts and culture; children, youth, and families; education; environment; health and medical research; health and social development; and youth philanthropy.

Start-Up Funds

A Start-Up Fund enables donors to build an endowment fund over a number of years. A minimum $1,000 is required to begin, but then they have up to 10 years to build their fund to the $10,000 mark. Once the full $10,000 in capital has been donated, donors can start to make grants.

Board Members and Volunteers

People give in many ways—including volunteering their time.

Vancouver Foundation ensures that its grants respond to community priorities and support the critical work of registered charities with the assistance of volunteer advisors who have expertise in our granting areas. We are grateful to the people who help strengthen British Columbia by providing their time, talent and expertise to Vancouver Foundation.

The background is a solid dark blue color. It features several white, curved lines that sweep across the page. On the left side, there are five overlapping, semi-circular lines that curve towards the right. On the right side, there are several more closely spaced, overlapping lines that curve upwards and then downwards, creating a sense of movement and depth.
