

A well prepared, up-to-date Will is important so that you can make your final wishes known. Your Will can ensure the financial security of your family and provide a generous gift for your community. Charitable giving through your Estate can result in significant tax savings. But most importantly, it's a statement of your life experience and your vision for a better tomorrow.

Vancouver Foundation is here to help. We've been helping people leave legacies for over 75 years. It's our expertise and passion. A gift to Vancouver Foundation goes beyond your lifetime and ensures that your generosity will benefit our community for generations to come.

You can plan for better tomorrow with a gift in your Will. Or consider simplifying your Estate planning by pre-establishing a Legacy Fund today with a gift of $1,000.

Bequests and sample wording

The charitable bequest in your Will can provide a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your Estate, or a gift of the residue, which consists of whatever remains in your Estate after gifts to your loved ones and all expenses have been paid.

Unless otherwise directed, all Estate gifts to Vancouver Foundation of $10,000 or more will be used to establish a permanent endowment fund in honour of the donor. Vancouver Foundation will invest your donation wisely, and grant the annual income disbursements to charities in accordance to your wishes.

The following sample Will clauses provide a few options for charitable giving at Vancouver Foundation through your Estate. There are many ways that your legacy can be structured. We encourage you to talk to your lawyer and your family, and contact us to find out more.
