MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Nineteen ninety-eight was another year of achievement for Vancouver Foundation. As the stewards of 655 donor funds with approximately $560 million in capital, we supported more than 1000 community-based charities and projects distributing a total of $24 million.

In July, the British Columbia Legislature passed an amendment to the Vancouver Foundation Act, the effects of which now permit the Foundation more flexibility in the investment of its funds — allowing us to maximize returns and distribution to charities while continuing to preserve our capital against inflation. Nothing in these changes affects the longstanding objectives or structure of Vancouver Foundation, which have stood the test of time and are as appropriate today as ever.

Increasing demands from the communities we serve require Vancouver Foundation to grow its capital base, and this aspect of the organization has been strengthened through a new position — Director of Development. Comments under the heading Tailoring your Legacy follow later in this report.

In the future, we will work even more closely with past donors.

On the grantmaking side, two previously separate fields of interest have been combined into the Children, Youth and Families category. In addition, Youth is being engaged under separate innovative programs — in Vancouver and other communities throughout the province. In spite of our name, the objectives of Vancouver Foundation are province-wide and we try to balance our support accordingly.

In this past year, the Board again reviewed the strategic plans of Vancouver Foundation and its governance — this, with a view to safeguarding the long-held reputation for prudent, open and efficient management, while undertaking new initiatives and meeting new challenges within the not-for-profit sector.

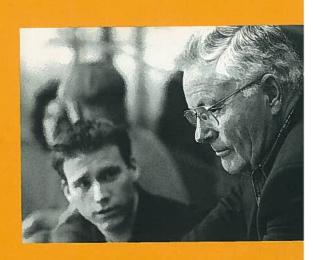

I would like to recognize the very active volunteers we have as Board members. In particular, retiring on rotation in 1998 were Bob Stewart, Peter Hebb and Haig Farris, and in 1999 Sandra Wilking and Tom Buell. Thanks for your support and direction over many years, and I know we can count on your continuing interest in Vancouver Foundation affairs.

As well, the volunteers who serve on various Advisory Committees deserve special recognition, as do our competent staff members. Together these groups give the organization the strength to meet interesting challenges and changing circumstances.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

The Community Foundation movement represents one of the fastest growing and dynamic forms of philanthropy in both Canada and the United States. Vancouver Foundation has been recognized for its leadership within the Community Foundation movement and the voluntary sector for more than a half century.

Given the mission that the Board has set for Vancouver Foundation, I believe that we will play an even greater role in the improvement of the quality of life of British Columbians in the future. Why? First, there are the gaps in services caused by the political realities of fiscal restraint and the increasing dependence on community resources created by government downloading. At the same time we are seeing a major demographic shift, in which a new generation of Canadians is set to inherit more than a trillion dollars from its aging parents — an unprecedented intergenerational transfer of wealth that could indelibly reshape our society.

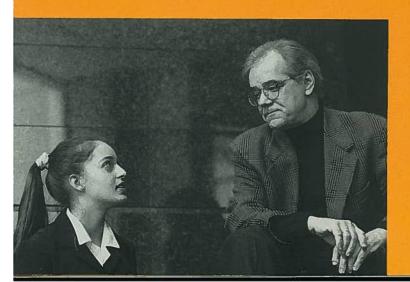

One of the greatest assets that we have in Canada today is our voluntary sector, which plays a central role in building vibrant communities and answering society's challenges and opportunities. Vancouver Foundation has the capacity and expertise to be the catalyst for those seeking to give back to their communities. We are also acutely aware that we must, like all successful businesses, remain as responsive to the needs and opportunities of our donors, as we are to those of charitable organizations across British Columbia.

We are living in a time when a new generation of entrepreneurial givers is changing the rules.

No longer satisfied with chequebook philanthropy, they come to the table with new ideas and new attitudes. And like most of our donors, they expect to be personally involved in creating more effective community-based projects.

That is why the Foundation actively encourages this type of collaborative giving or "social venture" approach to philanthropy, in which younger donors are bringing an entrepreneurial spirit to the voluntary sector world. And very rightly, they expect Vancouver Foundation to work as effectively as their businesses in delivering results that strengthen community capacities.

Great things happen when the energy of youth combines with the wisdom of age together, we can widen the circle of giving for the benefit of all British Columbians.

This past year Vancouver Foundation distributed $7 million from discretionary funds to charities throughout the province based on the recommendations of informed and expert Advisory Committees. Significantly, a grant of $100,000 was made to support the establishment and development of the Youth in Philanthropy program — a charitable activity carried out by Vancouver Foundation. During 1998, five Youth Advisory Councils were established in communities across British Columbia.

On July 30, the British Columbia Legislature passed an amendment to the Vancouver Foundation Act, which allows the Foundation more flexibility in the investment of its assets — the ability to maximize distributions to charities while, at the same time, protecting capital against inflation. As a result of this amendment, asset allocation was shifted — starting in September and completed by year-end.

With a pay-out rate set at 5.5 per cent of the average market value over the previous 12 quarters, the distributions were higher than they would have been and the capital was further protected against inflation. The administration of the organization and management of its funds continue to be conducted at the efficient cost of less than 0.5 per cent of the market value of capital.

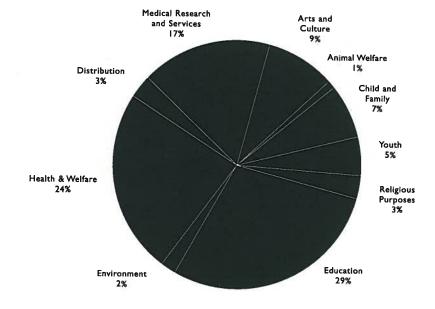

RETURNS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Returns from investments show a 5-year rolling average of 10.24% (after deducting the costs of administration and fund management of approximately 0.5% of market value per annum). The balance is divided between retained returns (capital gain) and that portion available for grants and distributions.

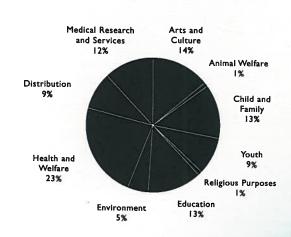

The actual operating costs (administration plus program) were in line with the budget and were only fractionally higher than 1997. One more staff member was hired to bolster financial administration. Investment management and custodial costs rose as a result of the increased market value of the fund and shift in asset allocation.

GRANTS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

TOTAL DISTRIBUTIONS $24 MILLION

Includes income distributed from designated endowments as well as grants made from Advised, Field of Interest and Unrestricted Funds. See page 4.

DISCRETIONARY GRANTS $7 MILLION

FUNDS

In most cases funds that are established with Vancouver Foundation are designated as either "open" or "closed" funds. Those designated as open may be added to, even in modest amounts, by anyone interested in supporting their purpose. Contributions to closed funds may only be made by the fundholder, by their family members or through in memoriam gifts. (* denotes closed funds.)

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS

These funds allow a donors' charitable giving to have the greatest possible impact because they provide the flexibility to respond to the community's most critical needs and to new problems as they emerge. Discretionary grants are awarded in response to funding applications that are carefully considered by an Advisory Committee of informed community representatives.

START-UP FUNDS

The minimum initiating capital to establish a fund with Vancouver Foundation is $10,000. Start-Up Funds enable donors who wish to establish an Unrestricted, Field of Interest or Advised Fund to make a minimum 'start up' contribution of $1,000 and provide the balance over a period of up to ten years. Income is capitalized until the full initiating capital is received, at which time the fund becomes fully functional.

ADVISED FUNDS

Grants made from Advised Funds are based on proposals received from fundholders. This type of fund creates a permanent and personal charitable vehicle that allows donors to structure their giving to best suit their individual circumstances. During a donor's lifetime, the fundholder or their chosen advisor(s) may suggest charities which could benefit from their fund. When the donor or their designated advisor(s) no longer wish, or are unable, to make recommendations, the fund can continue its charitable giving as an Unrestricted or Field of Interest Fund.

PROGRAM

During the past year, Vancouver Foundation, upon the recommendations of its Advisory Committees (listed below), made discretionary grants in seven major fields of interest, working to ensure funds were directed to areas where the greatest benefit could be achieved, as follows:

ARTS & CULTURE The Foundation strengthened the operating capacity of arts and cultural organizations, promoting a broader awareness and appreciation of the arts.

CHILD & FAMILY More resources were directed toward preventative initiatives in children's service agencies in a move to promote successful early intervention in children's lives.

YOUTH The Foundation funded a variety of projects to create new opportunities for young people — all based on self-esteem, leadership and competency. At-risk youth were the highest priority. A Youth Philanthropy Council was also established.

EDUCATION The Foundation funded projects designed specifically for life-long learning < working through experts to make education as accessible, positive and engaging as possible.

ENVIRONMENT The Foundation promoted and funded efforts to increase better scientific understanding of the environment, sustainable development initiatives, resource management training for aboriginal people and more effective public education.

HEALTH & WELFARE Projects designed to help people, families and communities assume more responsibility for themselves remained a key Foundation objective. Indeed, the Foundation's mission is predicated on the promotion of health and social development.

BC MEDICAL SERVICES The BC Medical Services Foundation continued to support health-related research in academic and community settings throughout the province — actively promoting new, community-based health initiatives as well as leading-edge health science research.

From daycare to symphony, theatre to crisis centre, the lives of almost all British Columbians are touched in some way by the not-for-profit sector. All are supported by philanthropists — the people who donate their time, energy, talent and money.

For more than half a century, many people have been supporting their own communities by creating a legacy through Vancouver Foundation — Canada's largest community-based foundation.

Today, while the Foundation manages considerable assets, there are not sufficient discretionary funds to meet the emerging needs of British Columbia communities. More financial support is needed now. To this end, the Foundation is being more assertive in its efforts to promote opportunities for philanthropists of all ages to give back to their communities.

promote opportunities

Some funds, as suggested by the donors themselves, will target specific philanthropic goals and community programs. At the leading edge are "discretionary" funds, comprising seven fields of interest: arts and culture; youth; child and family; education; environment; health and welfare; and medical services.

Foundation staff rigorously evaluate each application against need, sustainability and financial viability. Then, the application is carefully reviewed by an Advisory Committee made up of volunteer community representatives. Finally, all grants — often decided in an atmosphere of creative tension — are subject to final approval by the Foundation's Board.

This evaluation, which ensures these funds are on-target, often brings an added benefit. Because of its longstanding credibility within the not-for-profit community, other funding agencies, on learning of a Foundation decision, often make additional financial contributions to the same project.

There are many ways to leave a permanent legacy tailored to suit personal interests, priorities and objectives. Donors may choose, for example, to have funds set up in their own names. Or, to donate to a Community or Field-of-Interest Fund.

Together, we can widen the circle of giving. With your financial support, we can transform the landscape of philanthropy — for the benefit of all British Columbians.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Directors of Vancouver Foundation

We have audited the statements of financial position of Vancouver Foundation as at December 31, 1998 and 1997 and the statements of changes in consolidated trust fund and funds' income statements for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Vancouver Foundation as at December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the changes in consolidated trust fund and funds' income for the years then ended in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

I.Purpose and status

Vancouver Foundation (the "Foundation") was established in 1943 and became incorporated through an Act of the Provincial Legislature in 1950.

The income from funds donated and bequeathed to its endowment is used to provide for charitable purposes throughout British Columbia. The Foundation serves three major constituencies: its donors, the charitable sector and the community.

During the year ended December 31, 1998, the Vancouver Foundation Act was modified to give the Board of Directors the authority to determine the amount distributable for charitable purposes. Prior to this change in the Act, only interest and dividends were distributable for charitable purposes.

The Foundation is registered with the Charities Division, Revenue Canada, Taxation and is classified as a public foundation. As such it is exempt from federal income taxes and can issue charitable donation receipts.

2.Consolidated and Other Trust Funds

The Consolidated Trust Fund comprises those assets over which the Foundation exercises discretionary investment control within guidelines established by the Board of Directors. The Other Trust Funds comprise those assets over which the Foundation does not exercise discretionary investment control and which are administered in accordance with specific directions from the donors.

3.Accounting policies

The following accounting policies used by the Foundation are stated below to assist in understanding the financial statements.

Bequests and grants

Bequests are recorded upon receipt of the donated assets. Bequests in a form other than cash or marketable securities are recorded at values determined by the Board of Directors. Grants are recorded when paid by the Foundation.

Investment

Investments within the Consolidated Trust Fund are valued at current market prices on the last business day of the fiscal period. Investments within the Other Trust Funds are stated at cost and any realized gains or losses arising from investment transactions are included as part of contributed principal. Investments are held by CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company, which acts as custodian on behalf of the Foundation.

Fixed assets

The Foundation capitalizes the cost of major capital additions and amortizes the cost of these assets over their estimated useful lives. Lease inducements received in conjunction with the Foundation's lease are offset against the cost of leasehold improvements. Management has determined the estimated useful lives to be:

Computer and office equipment 5 years straight line

Office furniture 10 years straight line

Leasehold improvements, straight line over the net of lease inducements

straight line over the term of the lease (10 years)

Investment income

Interest income on bonds, mortgages and short-term notes is accrued as earned. Dividends which have been declared are recorded as income on the date of record set for the dividend.

Operating expenses

Administration expenses, program expenses and investment management and custodial fees are recorded using the accrual basis.

4. Investments

Consolidated Trust Fund

The bonds and debentures in the Consolidated Trust Fund are represented by Canadian fixed interest bonds and debentures, with a weighted average term to maturity of 9.1 years (1997 - 8.8 years).

The common shares and convertible securities in the Consolidated Trust Fund are represented by the following:

	1				199	7
	Cost		Market Value		Cost		Market Value
Canadian	$ 111,746,898	$	125,053,261	$	85,759,328	$	107,203,924

	$ 215.362.524	s	252.738.715	S	175.754.777	9	206.929.284

5.Commitments

In addition to the amounts presented under "Funds returns pending distribution", the Foundation-has committed to grants totalling $1,567,000 (1997 - $1,965,000) which are payable from future returns. Payment of these grants are conditional on the recipients meeting certain criteria and providing certain supporting information.

The Foundation has a ten year lease agreement, with the following commitments related to office rent:

¢ 144 749

1777	$ 100,707
2000	176,864
2001	176,864
2002	178,574
2003	183,702
2004 - 2005	321,479
	$ 1,204,252

6. Year 2000 Issue

The Year 2000 Issue arises because many computerized systems use two digits rather than four digits to identify a year. Date sensitive systems may recognize the year 2000 as 1900 or some other date, resulting in errors when information using the year 2000 dates are processed. In addition, similar problems may arise in some systems which use certain dates in 1999 to represent something other than a date. The effects of the Year 2000 Issue may be experienced before, on, or after January 1, 2000, and, if not addressed, the impact on operations and financial reporting may range from minor errors to significant system failures which could affect the Foundation's ability to conduct normal business operations. It is not possible to be certain that all aspects of the Year 2000 Issue affecting the Foundation, including those related to the efforts of customers, suppliers, or other third parties will be fully resolved.

7.Statement of changes in financial position

A statement of changes in financial position has not been presented as management does not consider it meaningful in the circumstances.

V A N C O U V E R F O U N D A T I O N

Discretionary grants in each of Vancouver Foundation's seven fields of interest are awarded in response to applications that are carefully considered by an Advisory Committee made up of informed community representatives who are widely experienced in the particular field of interest. Grants from Advised Funds are based on proposals received from fundholders.

West Richmond Community Association Coordinated Youth Services Project

applying for a grant

To find out whether your project meets Vancouver Foundation's basic criteria, please contact our office. The Foundation supports only registered charities with a federal charitable tax number/business number.

To begin, all grant applicants must submit a letter outlining the proposed project in less than four pages. The letter should:

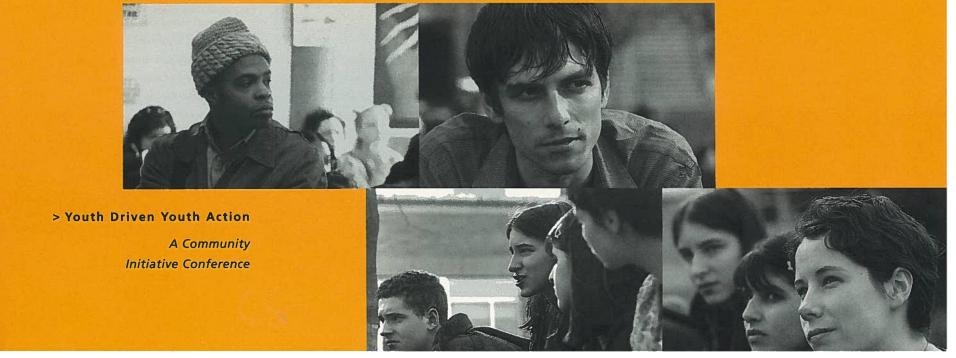

- > introduce your organization and its mandate;
- > state the community priorities the project will address;
- > detail the scope of the project, including a timeline;
- > demonstrate community support for the project; and
- > provide a detailed budget, including funding from Vancouver Foundation and other sources.

One of our Program Directors will review your proposal to determine basic eligibility. You may be contacted for further information. If the project qualifies, you will be invited to submit a formal application by a specified deadline. You will be provided with an application form with detailed instructions for its completion.

A thorough assessment of the application will be completed before it goes forward to the appropriate Advisory Committee. Meetings or phone discussions with Foundation staff are likely and, as part of the assessment, other funders may be consulted.

The Advisory Committee will then consider your application and make a recommendation to the Foundation's Board of Directors. You will receive written notification of the Board's decision, along with terms and conditions.

Vancouver Foundation has three annual deadlines (January, April, September) for receiving completed applications. Grant decisions usually take about 12 weeks.

VALUES In pursuit of its mission, Vancouver Foundation believes: > that our position within the community is both an opportunity and a responsibility to provide philanthropic leadership; > that the endowment fund is a resource to benefit the people of British Columbia and we commit to steward these funds in a responsible manner; > in open, accessible, respectful, and ethical behaviour in our conduct with all people who come in contact with the foundation; > that our policies, programs and practices should enable and encourage human growth and dignity, inclusiveness, fairness and the equality of all people; > in working as a catalyst within the charitable sector to strengthen community capacity and volunteerism and to find solutions to shared challenges; > in partnerships that seek consensus and respect the integrity and autonomy of participants; > in encouraging and nurturing innovations and managing the risks inherent in creative philanthropy.
